

Meanings

Words and music by Keith Sanford

C maj7                      Bm7                      Am7                      C maj7                      D

Pa - ges of a sac - red book that                      peo - ple is - sue creeds to tame
Words from pro - phets seem to min - gle                      anc - ient myth with mys - tic light
His - tory blows a - way like smoke its                      sto - ries fade in - to the air
Dif - ferent peo - ple dif - ferent voi - ces,                      dif - ferent types of po - e - try

5                      C maj7                      Bm7                      Am7                      D7                      G

Dif - ferent mean - ings swirl with - in                      What each will find ___ is not the same
Words that dance and move a round                      both clear as day ___ and dark as night
Can the sa - cred pa - ges find                      ex - act - ly what ___ and who and where
Hear the sounds that move the earth,                      a cho - rus of ___ di - ver - si - ty

9                      Dm                      G                      C                      G/B                      Am                      C maj7                      D

Fra - gile marks up - on a scroll                      of parch - ment scraps from long a - go

13                      C maj7                      Bm7                      Am7                      C maj7                      G

O - ver time so ma - ny minds find ma - ny mean - ings ___ to be - stow