

Breathe Now

Eb
F m7
Bb
Ab
Eb

Breathe now, the deep and swirl - ing source of life. _____

5
C m7
F m7
Bb
Ab
Eb

Dream now the dream that stops the storms of strife.

9
Eb
C m7
Eb
F m7

When might - y moun - tains hear the ten - der cry, _____
 For in these days, the sun may cease to shine, _____
 And when a dra - gon storms a - cross the earth, _____
 Hew from the moun - tain of a great dis - pair, _____

13
Bb
Eb
Ab
F m7
G

and ev - ery val - ley lif - ted to the sky.
 and stars grow dark, as peace fades in de - cline.
 to hate the child a mo - ther brings in birth.
 a stone of hope for peo - ple eve - ry - where.

17
Eb
C m7
G m7
F m7

When all God's child - ren then join hands and sing, _____
 It seems the earth is soon to pass a - way, _____
 May jus - tice roll like wa - ters in a stream, _____
 And, with this faith, to - geth - er peo - ple pray. _____

21
Bb7
Eb
Ab
Bb
Eb

"We're free at last," for hate has lost its sting.
 Yet, still the dream, its light brings hope to - day.
 So ev - ery type of soul can share the dream.
 "Now, free at last," will be our song some - day.

Words: Keith Sanford

Tune: Finlandia, Jean Sibelius, 1899